Tim Babb, OHIO STATE WATERPROOFING

"The public loved the look of our products and when they heard the prices they loved it more. Customers came from all areas of town—West, East and South. Looking forward to growing the business together now!"

Steve Caldwell, DISTINCTIVE APPLIANCES

"Our qualified lead count from each of the 2016 Cleveland Home Shows was way up from year's past. These shows continue to draw great crowds. The people that stop at our booth are there to shop for upcoming home remodeling projects. Having our owners and project managers at the shows to meet people face-to-face, talk about their projects, and have the opportunity to show them the quality of our work and our team is a valuable part of our marketing efforts."

Pat & Dan Hurst, HURST DESIGN-BUILD-REMODEL
